POLICE PROCEEDINGS.—Tuesday, Oct. 17. The following persons were fined for drunkenness and disorderly conduct: Thos. Conner, $10; Joe Kennedy, $10; Jim Toomey, $10, and $250 bail to answer an assault.

The Grand Jury returned indictments against ten persons.

Wm. Whalen, disorderly conduct, discharged.

Following persons were fined on ordinance warrants: Henry Young, $5; John Forney, $5.

R. D. Pool, having notes purporting to be bank notes in his possession, with intent to circulate them; continued until to-morrow.

Jno. Carl, stealing a pair of pants and $1 from H. Perry; $300 to answer.

Louis Teiger, stealing two dresses and $10 to Sol, R. Green; $300 to answer.

Emily Rogers, a slave, stealing $7 and a pocket book from J. W. White; continued until to-morrow.

Mary Ann Bennett and Mary Bushy, stealing clothing from Francis Browner; continued until to-morrow.

It is a common occurrence, when a concert or any exhibition is given in the Masonic Temple, to see little boys going through the audience peddling photographs, fans, &c. There isn't one boy in ten who are seen there that will not steal, and we hope the manager of the hall will break it up. Night before last, when the "panic" broke out, one little scaly-headed rascal stole several handkerchiefs which the ladies had dropped in their excitement upon the floor. Stop! The audience don't like to be bothered by these impudent chaps in any way during a performance.

NATO KIDNAPPERS.—A little Negro, five years of age, had been kidnapped by a negro woman named Mag Churchill. On Monday the boy turned up, missing, and a white lady, who seemed to take some interest in the boy, had Mag arrested for kidnapping him. The military authorities ordered Mag to find him, with orders to report her success every three hours until she found him. She had two others assisting in the search yesterday but they had met with no success at dark last evening.

We direct the attention of merchants and shippers to the card of McGivane Brothers, commission merchants, New York, and Thomas O. Carter & Co., commission merchants, Chicago, Illinois. These houses are represented in Louisville by H. A. Dunsmuir, an old citizen and a business man. Mr. Dunsmuir may be found at L. Danforth & Co.'s insurance agency, corner of Main and Bullitt streets.

The great sale of lots on Portland avenue, by Messrs. Sherman, P. Whaley & Co., on yesterday afternoon, was of great interest. The lots ranged for $200 to $1,000, in areas between Second and Third cross streets. They have a sale of lots on the corner of Nineteenth and Walnut streets, on Saturday afternoon, and we advise all our friends to attend, as there will be bargains sold.

Announcements.

Advices from Mexico and the neighboring colony of British Honduras, furnish some interesting news.

From the Belize we learn that the English government has sent Maximilian to extend the boundary of his Empire into British Honduras, by means of a ministerial order.

Mexico, however, declares that Mexico has no claim whatever in any portion of the territory, and to this Senator Ramirez on the 15th sent a protest against the doubtful policy of Napoleon towards Maximilian, and the reported determination of the Emperor to make up the Monroe doctrine, influenced the submissive tone of the Mexican reply considerably.

The supporters of President Juarez were extremely active, and the leading Republicans are destroying the expenses of arming the guerrilla bands and marshaling them for the attack on and along the coast line, the cause of the Imperialists was decidedly declining.

The constitutionalists, however, had seized and entered the city. The Republicans are still in expectation of aid from the United States. It is said that the English government has sent $1,000,000 dollars to Washington in order to influence Congress in favor of his recognition by our Government. Newspapers, in their editorials, publish the details of the counts of the prospects and resources of the Empire. They claim that the country is well supplied with men, and that its agricultural and mineral resources render it self-sustaining.

Quite a number of rebels from this exiled government in Mexico have joined the Ex-Governor and ex-rebel General Price, of Tennessee, Major Isham G. Harris, of Mississippi, Major Maury, Major Price, and Dr. E. H. Moore, are appointed Commissioners of Colonization and Emigration by Maximilian's order.

Additional troops had arrived in Mexico from France.

Trade at the date of the latest advices was very bad in Belize, Honduras and those places. No American vessels in port.

The planters of Cuba have addressed a memorial to the court of Madrid asking for the abolition of slavery in the island.

New York, Oct. 17.

A very interesting case in which the bonds of the Jeff. Davis Confederacy figure prominently, yesterday took place in the Court of Common Pleas.

When the rebellion broke out George W. Geoch, the defendant in the case, according to the records, was a member of the agent of the large Broadway dry-goods house of Lanes, Boyce & Co., interested with the collection of $12,000,000.

On the 4th of March, 1861, Messrs. Lanes, Boyce & Co. turned over their business to Leroy M. Jones, who is now the attorney who are the plaintiffs in the prosecution.

Geoch went on in his collections, and he alleges, with the approval of Mr. Wm. C. R. Geoch, the son of the man who collected the money he collected in rebel securities which, of course, have since proved worthless.

He was arrested, and, at the instance of the plaintiff, was arrested and locked up in default of $25,000,000, on the charge of conspiracy to commit treason.

The proceedings yesterday were in connection with a motion for a writ of habeas corpus, and the argument of the counsel over the question, as to whether the rebel bonds turned over to the credit of his employers by Mr. Geoch were valid or not, and the rightness of their being held by the plaintiff to them.

The following is a copy of the amnesty oath of Geoch:

"I, John C. Geoch, of Astoria, county, Va., Oct. 2d, 1863.—I, Robert E. Lee, of Lexington, Virginia, do solemnly swear, in the presence of God, that I will henceforth faithfully support, protect, and defend the Constitution of the United States, and the Union of the States thereunder, and that my all laws and proclamations which have been made respecting the emancipation of slaves, so help me God."

[Signed.]

"ROBERT E. LEE."

Washington, Oct. 16.

The question of the retention of the veteran reserve corps in service will probably be decided this week. It is to be hoped that it will be moderated out than consolidated.

The statement that there will be a force of 100,000 in the mail service account when the war is over, is not true. Southern states is unaffected in fact, and further, from all reliable sources of information, the fact is that the Post Office Department will be self-sustaining in the South as well as North.

The trial of Gen. Breese, for the alleged loss of $100,000 in the mail service, is progressing. A motion was made by a member of the court that the accused be informed of his military reputation as that had been fully established by the testimony, but the motion was denied.

The members of the House of Representatives, and the Union of the States thereunder, have petitioned the Government authority to allow troops to remain in the country. In Spotsylvania and elsewhere, the people feel the military power irresistible.

The receipts of the internal revenue to-day are:

The United States steamer Rhode Island and Hornet will sail for Hayton on the 26th to bring away the rebel ram Stonewall.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.

The drought in New England affects the country more than strange, and the statement may soon become more advanced their prices for bank-note paper about are plenty, no other than the lack of water can be assigned.

CARDO, Oct. 17.

The steamer William, en route to St. Louis from Memphis, having been delayed by the want of freight and sixteen passengers, was unable to get into New Madrid, Missouri, at six o'clock yesterday morning, and had to wait so long that there was time to lose. The passengers, many of whom had escaped without clothing, considered the baggage was also saved. The cargo was supposed to have been insured. The fire was caused by the explosion of a kerosene lamp in the workshop of Becker, the third largest flour mill in the Mississippi river.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.

The steamer Quaker City, from Charleston, S. C., arrived here yesterday.

The steamer Idaho and Leo have arrived from Savannah, The Herald of that city says that they are to be the most important line that has been more activity in shipping and in trade generally than at the present.

The flood contains a circular from General Fulton, setting forth certain rules for the government of freedmen. They are informed that they will be held to good faith in their just contracts with the freedmen.
